

Stakeholder Report for the Universal Periodic Review

Democratic People's Republic of Korea

Prepared by: Life Funds for North Korean Refugees

About Life Funds for North Korean Refugees (LFNKR)

Life Funds for North Korean Refugees (LFNKR) is an independent, non-denominational, non-profit Tokyo-based NGO established in 1999 which provides humanitarian assistance to refugees from the Democratic People's Republic of Korea living in hiding in China, including food, clothing, and first-aid kits. We also actively lobby nationally and internationally on behalf of refugees from the DPRK, and assist those wishing to resettle in Japan.

LFNKR submitted, along with Human Rights Without Frontiers, a Stakeholder's Report in 2009 for the UPR review of the DPRK, and organized, with Human Rights Watch Geneva, a side event for that session. LFNKR has also submitted a Stakeholder's Report for the second review of the People's Republic of China in late 2013.

LFNKR was the recipient of the Tokyo Bar Association's Human Rights Award for 2008.
