

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO THAILAND – second batch

GERMANY

- Germany shares concerns that the continued enforcement of Thailand's lèse-majesté legislation limits the rights to freedom of opinion and expression. How has Thailand implemented the recommendations regarding freedom of expression and public and transparent proceedings as accepted during the first cycle in 2011?
- Germany welcomes Thailand giving shelter to refugees but deems it necessary to offer them legal status. Thus, we would like to ask whether Thailand intends to sign and ratify the 1951 Geneva Convention of Refugees and create national legislation granting adequate legal protection to refugees?

MEXICO

- What public policy measures have been taken to facilitate the registration of births all over the country, including births in population of ethnic minorities?
- Are there legal initiatives to reduce the use of death penalty in the country?
- What are the policy measures taken in order to allow LGBT persons to live with no discrimination?
- Are there efforts or initiatives in order to facilitate access to school of children with disabilities?
