

Outline of the speech in 40th Session of the Human Rights Council

1. Briefly introduce the mission of All-China Environment Federation.
2. Share the recent observation of the activities and achievements of environmental protection of Chinese government.
3. State the important role of Chinese environmental NGOs for protecting environment and human right.
4. Appeal more ambition and support for environment protection and sustainable development from all the governments in the world.