

Enabling Access to Justice for Minors in China

—From a NGO perspective

Beijing Children’s Legal Aid and Research Center ( “BCLARC”), was established in 1999 and received the special consultative status with the UN Economic and Social Council in 2011. Its vision is to build a Just Society for children where their rights could be respected and protected. BCLARC has adopted a holistic system of approaches and has established its own model of child rights advocacy, which includes:

- 1. Providing Legal Consultation and Legal Aid Service for the Children
- 2. Conducting Empirical Research on Child Rights
- 3. Promoting the Improvements of Laws and Policies
- 4. Child Protection Advocacy and Awareness Raising
- 5. Coordinating the Pro bono Lawyers’ Network on Child Protection
- 6. Providing Financial Support for Child Victims
- 7. Empowerment of Left Behind Children
- 8. Connecting Local to Global
